B01 / TEA COUNTER

Tea counter receipt

RECEIPT

Jules says the tea receipt puts them away from the booth when the pin case opened. The printed receipt time is 18:10.

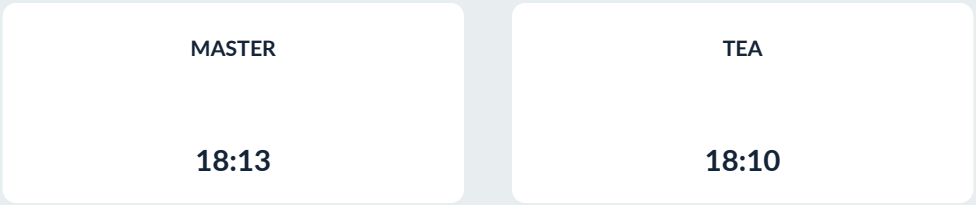

CLOCK CHECK

At 18:13 on the master clock, the stall register showed 18:10. Its offset was unchanged all afternoon.

LOCATION

The stall is three minutes from the pin booth.

B02 / LOST & FOUND

A curious packet

18:09 | COUNTER SIGN-IN

Jules leaves one padded packet in the dry-item drawer.

DESCRIPTION

The packet label reads “small brass pin / white triangle / black pad.”

18:04 | ROOF NOTE

A drip had appeared above the pin case. The coordinator had told all volunteers not to rearrange displays before photos.

CASE NOTE Packet contents were not opened for inspection at sign-in.

B03 / VOLUNTEER MESSAGE

Unsent message draft

18:10 | UNSENT MESSAGE DRAFT

A draft saved in Jules' name reads: The roof leak is getting worse.
They said not to move displays before photos. I should tell someone.

INVENTORY NOTE

The dry-item drawer remains locked and available for the organizers to inspect.
